Fund Manager Commentary

This month the position in the Rabobank Perpetual was increased while the position in the French inflation linked government bond was completely sold. The stock of Advanced Micro Systems has also been added to the portfolio.

In June, developed equity markets continued their positive momentum as better than expected macro-economic data seemed to confirm the positive expectations linked to the gradual reopening of economies. In Europe, the Stoxx Europe 600 increased by +1.4% while in the US, the S&P500 even gained +2.2%. Emerging markets remained somewhat flattish this month as the MSCI Emerging Markets Index slightly decreased by -0.1%.

Fixed income markets regained some colors in June as the Federal Reserve hinted it would hike more often and earlier than previously expected by markets. The German bund 10 years increased by +0.6%, its yield decreasing to -0.25% from -0.19% one month earlier. Investment grade corporate bonds in euro gained +0.4% while the riskier high yield index increased by +0.5%. Subordinated financials and corporate hybrid bonds in euro both increased by +0.5% and +0.8% respectively. In the US, the 10-year Treasury bond gained +1.2% its yield decreasing to 1.46% from 1.59% one month earlier. US corporate bonds increased by +1.5% and US high yield bonds gained +1.1%. The USD jumped by +3.2% against the EUR and finished the month at 1.1849.

Risk and Reward Profile

Scale running from 1 (lowest risk) to 7 (highest risk). The risk indicator is a Synthetic Risk and Reward Indicator (SRRI), as prescribed by the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA). The risk category is an indicator of the risk linked to an investment in a UCITS or a compartment. Any change in the risk category will be specified in the periodic reports of the UCITS. For more information visit www.esma.europa.eu.

Additional information on possible risks in case of unusual market conditions

Counterparty risk : The Sub-Fund could lose money if an entity with which it does business becomes unwilling or unable to honour its commitments to the Sub-Fund.

Default risk : A bond may lose part or its entire value if the issuer is unable to pay interest or repay principal on schedule.

Derivatives risk : Certain derivatives could increase Sub-Fund volatility or expose the Sub-Fund to losses greater than the cost of the derivative.

Liquidity risk : Certain securities could become hard to sell at a desired time and price.

Management risk : Portfolio management techniques that have worked well in normal market conditions could prove ineffective or detrimental during unusual conditions.

Operational risk : In any market, but especially in emerging markets, the fund could lose some or all of its money through a failure in asset safekeeping or through fraud, corruption, political actions or any other unexpected events.
